BALI EXPOSÉ

John Hardy launches 2018 holiday gift guide

Handcrafted jewelry brand John Hardy, with a workshop in Ubud, Bali, has launched its 2018 holiday gift guide, featuring product highlights ideal for Christmas and New Year gifts for your close relatives and loved ones.

The catalogue features the brand's new product types: Gold for generosity, Color for exploration, mixed metal for strength, classics for effortlessness and statements for individuality.

The gold for generosity line showcases depth and contrast within dramatic gold-and-diamonds designs. Color for exploration, meanwhile, uses elemental stones embodying wearers' soulful energy. The mixed metal line demonstrates strength in complementary silver-and-gold designs.

Besides using materials as suggested by the names above (gold, metals and colorful stones), the statements for individuality line features boldness required for self-expression and new style frontiers. The classics for effortlessness line, meanwhile, emphasize flawless designs effortlessly, with pieces accented by ethereal elements like sapphires, diamonds and pearl.

Tea with Farah Quinn at King Cole Bar

As the final part of a series of events celebrating 10 years of excellence at the St. Regis Bali Resort, we are proud to collaborate with celebrity chef Farah Quinn. In keeping with the celebratory theme of the occasion, Festive Afternoon Tea with Farah Quinn showcases the personal creations of this notable celebrity chef.

Farah Quinn moved to the United States to finish high school in Pittsburgh, then went on to study finance at the University of Pennsylvania. Farah's love for food, however, took over, and she changed her field of study to Culinary Arts and completed a degree in Pastry Arts at the Pennsylvania Culinary Institute.

St. Regis now sets the stage for the personal festive favorites of Farah Quinn, whose passion for pastry is rivalled only by her love of golf.

Festive Afternoon Tea with Farah Quinn is available throughout December 2018 and January 2019.

Green School Bali receives Platinum Award for excellence

Green School Bali has been awarded the Excellent School Platinum Award on Nov. 9 at the Aston Priority Simatupang & Conference Center in Jakarta. The award was given to Green School in recognition for its innovative approach to education and having impact on the local community.

The Penghargaan Indonesia awards organization, which nominates and selects the recipients of the Platinum Award, fosters creative and innovative achievements.

It issues its awards to recognize and legitimize outstanding individuals and organizations to create a ripple effect in society.

Green School is a non-profit private school that provides Pre-K to Grade 12 education in Bali. The school offers one of the most beautiful campuses imaginable, with extraordinary bamboo structures rising out of the jungle, surrounded by lush organic gardens and bisected by the majestic Ayung River. Green School teaches sustainability through community-integrated, entrepreneurial learning in a holistic, student-centered learning program.

Apurva Kempinski Bali Launches 'Place to Discover' Campaign

The Apurva Kempinski Bali has launched its bold "Place to Discover" campaign on Nov. 1 ahead of the ocean-front resort's much-anticipated opening in the first quarter of 2019.

The "Place to Discover" campaign is a tribute to the richness of Indonesia's cultural heritage.

Six short films with 10-, 30- and 90-second run times embody the campaign's fully integrated, multi-platform approach, which is unprecedented in traditional hospitality advertising. Rather than focusing on the upcoming resort's facilities and services, the films depict the resort's evocative brand, "Majestic Open-Air Theater", in four thematic explorations: Spectacular, Sensational, Curated and Serene.

The storyline features the Kempinski brand ambassador, Lady in Red, who presents the stage at The Apurva Kempinski Bali.
